Cal Poly San Luis Obispo Transfer Supplemental Application

Completing the application accurately is a Cal Poly SLO admission requirement. Your application is reviewed by the computer with Cal Poly's selection software. No human reviews the application to determine your admission. Therefore, it is critical that you record the courses in the appropriate section on the application. To ensure that you receive the maximum points for having the requirements completed, use this guide to assist you in putting the correct courses in their designated spaces. In order to accurately complete your application, you will need the following information:

- ◆ The names of all colleges you have attended
- ◆ Total units and dates of attendance (whether or not you have completed units while in attendance)
- ◆ Courses you have completed and the grades earned from the college(s) you have attended (transcripts)
- ◆ College courses you are currently taking and plan to take.
- ◆ Cal Poly SLO Transfer Selection Guides (available at <http://admissions.calpoly.edu/applicants/transfer/criteria.html>)
- ◆ Major Preparation Articulation Agreements (available at www.assist.org)

All Fall applicants:

- Must have the following courses completed by the end of Spring to be considered for admission
 - 3 semester units of Speech or Oral Communication (Area A1): SPCH 1A or SPCH 60
 - 3 semester units of English Composition (Area A2): ENGL 1A
 - 3 semester units of Critical Thinking (Area A3): ENGL 5, PHIL 3, PHIL 5, SPCH 3A, or SPCH 9
 - 3 semester units of General Education Math (Area B4): MATH 1A, 1B, 4, 9, 10, 15, 16, 25, 27, or 58
- Must NOT include courses you plan to take Summer 2019 on the Transfer Student Supplemental Questionnaire
- Must indicate "In Progress/Planned" in the grade field for your Spring 2019 classes

AP Tests

If you have taken the AP test for any subject and have received a score of three (3) or better, you may enter three semester units of credit in the appropriate subject area, selecting "Credit/AP (3+)" for your grade. To receive transfer credit for any Advanced Placement Examination, Cal Poly must receive an official test result from the Educational Testing Service.

Quarter or Semester Units

Enter the unit value of the course and whether it was taken on the quarter or semester system. The Cal Poly San Luis Obispo Admission Office will convert all units to the semester system.

How to Enter Coursework

If you took "Introduction to Public Speaking (SPCH 1A)" and "Communication Skills (SPCH 60)," you would add separate courses for each under "Speech/Public Address/Oral Communication." All of the courses must also be reported. For most subject areas, you will probably only enter one or two courses.

- ◆ For courses you have in progress now or plan to take before enrolling at Cal Poly, select "In Progress/Planned". You will not receive grade credit for "Credit/AP (3+)", "Pass", and "In Progress/Planned" courses, but you will get course credit.
- ◆ If you earned a No Credit ("NC"), No Pass ("NP") or Withdrawal ("W"), do not report the course.
- ◆ Up to four courses in each subject area may be entered. If you have taken more than four courses in any subject area, enter the four courses with the highest grades.
- ◆ If you have repeated a course because you received a grade of D or F, and you have received a higher grade and your current transcript no longer reflects the lower grade in your GPA, you do not need to report the course with the lower grade on your application. However, if you are currently repeating a course, or if you plan to repeat a course, you must list the original grade on your application as it appears on your transcript at the time of application.

◆ Do not enter the same course more than once.

Use the following process to determine which courses are designated as Major-Related 1, 2, or 3 & need to be reported:

SRJC Courses

1. Go to <http://admissions.calpoly.edu/applicants/transfer/criteria.html> and print a copy of the Transfer Selection Criteria for your major. The Transfer Selection Criteria guide clearly identifies the CAL Poly SLO courses that fit into the Major-Related 1, 2, and 3 categories. Not all majors have all three areas.
2. Go to www.assist.org and print the articulation agreement between Cal Poly SLO and SRJC for your major. Use the articulation agreement to find the CPSLO course listed on the Transfer Selection Criteria guide and the equivalent SRJC course that satisfies the requirement. Make sure to enter only the Major-Related Courses listed on the Transfer Selection Criteria guide. Note: If there is no equivalent course listed on the articulation agreement and you have only attended SRJC, then you will not have anything to report in that section.

Courses from Other California Community Colleges

Use the same process outlined for SRJC courses but use the articulation agreement from the other community college/s you attended.

Courses from California 4-year Universities and Out-of-State Colleges and 4-year Universities

If you are using non-California Community College courses, please consult with a counselor.

Remember: Do not enter the same course more than once on the Transfer Student Supplemental application. Major-Related Courses must be reported only in the Major-Related Courses section not in the Transfer Supplemental 1 or 2 sections.
