UC Riverside Fall 2020
Transfer Admission Guarantee Tips

UC Riverside's TAG webpage can be found here.

When to write the TAG:

- UCR will accept TAGs September 1- 30.
- Students must also submit the UC application for admission November 1-30.

Eligibility Criteria:

- 30 transferable units completed (and grades posted) at time of writing TAG (30 unit minimum can include AP and IB credit)
- 60 transferable units completed by the end of spring 2020
- Earn the minimum required GPA for your intended major:
    - 2.8 for College of Humanities and Social Sciences (CHASS)
    - 2.7 for Graduate School of Education (GSOE)
    - 2.7 for School of Public Policy
    - 3.0 plus major preparation for Bourns College of Engineering (BCOE)
    - 2.8 plus major preparation for College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences (CNAS)
    - 3.0 plus major preparation for School of Business (SB)
- Maintain the required GPA for your specific major before transfer
- First English composition course must be completed by end of fall 2019. The second English composition must be completed by spring 2020.
- Students applying to a selective major (all majors in BCOE, CNAS, and SB; economics, business economics, psychology, and neuroscience majors in CHASS) must have minimum mathematics for major complete by end of fall 2019.
- Non-selective majors must complete a minimum of one UC-transferable math by end of fall 2019.

Majors that require major preparation: lower-division major preparation must be completed. To check these requirements, visit www.assist.org.

TAGs NOT available for:

- Students who are not in good standing at their community college (or last college attended).
- Former UC students who left the UC not in good academic standing.
- Students who have earned a bachelor's degree.
- Students who have 80 or more UC-transferable units because they have already attended a UC and left, or have acquired upper division units from a four year university. If you have only attended a California Community College, this policy does not pertain to you.
